Renting one portion of the Umble Park facility does not guarantee exclusivity of use. It is possible that more than one event will be held in any one day to allow maximum enjoyment of the facilities for all members of the community. Common areas within the park are open to the community every day regardless of rental.

Deposit

A $100 deposit is required to hold the reservation for all rentals. Full deposit will be refunded after the rental provided Township representative confirms that no damage to Township property has occurred. Deposit will be forfeited if repairs or excessive maintenance are required.

Please submit a check payable to Honey Brook Township along with a completed Facilities Use Application to the Township Administrator who will verify availability of facilities for the date requested and confirm rental agreement.
