

WHEREAS, JAMES A. UMBLE served Honey Brook Township with distinction for more than forty-five years as one of its elected township supervisors; and

WHEREAS, the Township has, over the course of those years under the guiding hand of Jim Umble, made great strides as a major agricultural producer in Chester County, as a residential community where families can grow and prosper, and as a thoroughfare for commerce and the development of small businesses; and

WHEREAS, under the leadership of Jim Umble, the Township has accommodated growth while preserving its heritage and sense of community; and

WHEREAS, Jim Umble was known throughout Chester County as a prominent and sensitive leader in his community, and one to whom elected officials from all around the County could look for help and advice; and

WHEREAS, his family, his friends, his Township, and his community have been deprived of a great asset, a knowledgeable resource and a wonderful man by the death of Jim Umble on January 17, 1991:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT REMEMBERED by the citizens of Honey Brook Township that the Board of Supervisors of Honey Brook Township did pass this Resolution on the 7th day of February, 1991, expressing their deep sympathies for the family and deep regrets at having lost a friend, mentor, and public servant who has given so much of his life so that the lives of the citizens of the Honey Brook Community could be better.

ADOPTED as a Resolution of the Board of Supervisors of Honey Brook Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania this 7th day of February, 1991.
