Information

- The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) has UPDATED the Chester County Flood Insurance Rate Maps to revise floodplain boundaries for the Octoraro, Brandywine, Red Clay and White Clay Creek watersheds. These changes to the Flood Insurance Rate Maps are final and go into effect September 29, 2017.
- Stop by the FEMA Open House and FEMA staff will show property owners the revised floodplain boundary mapping, explain what it means and answer questions.
- This event is being coordinated by the Chester County Water Resources Authority and the Chester County Planning Commission.
- Property owners can also review online the pending FEMA floodplain mapping posted at www.chesco.org/2198/ChescoViews.
- There is no need to register for this event. For more information, please contact Dani-Ella Betz, Chester County Water Resources Authority at wauth@chesco.org or call (610) 344-5400.
