Keynote Speaker :
Christian E. Strohmaier,
Managing Director of
Chester County
Conservation District

The Chester County Conservation District would like to invite you to attend our annual Agricultural Producers' Meeting on Wednesday, March 7, 2018. Please join us to hear the latest information about Pennsylvania agriculture and conservation efforts provided by our guest speakers and conservationists. You will also have the opportunity to meet and talk with other area producers and industry sponsor representatives. Pesticide credits (one core and one category) will be offered from the Penn State Extension upon completion of the workshop.

Our keynote speaker, Chris Strohmaier will discuss the history of the Conservation District and how we have adapted to changes in agriculture and regulatory policy. Other topics of the workshop will include the pesticide credit presentations and technical updates from Conservation District staff. Lunch at the world famous Shady Maple Smorgasbord (12:00 p.m.) is included.

There is no charge for attending; however, please R.S.V.P. by March 5, 2018 so that we can include you in the lunch count. We are looking forward to hearing from you!
