

Trash Collection

Residents are required to contract with their own trash hauler who will also provide recycling services. Residential developments managed by a Home Owners Associations (HOA) and mobile home parks may contract with a single hauler for their entire development so please check with your manager for...

Read More

Outdoor Burning

Outdoor burning of household, commercial or industrial trash or other refuse, leaf waste, yard waste, or recyclable materials that are required to be separated and collected such as newspaper, cardboard, clear glass, and plastics is prohibited. Small...

Read More

Recycling is Mandatory

Pennsylvania and Honey Brook Township regulations require all residential, commercial, institutional and municipal properties to separate recyclable materials from their waste and have it properly collected and processed. Residential collection Recyclable materials shall be provided at least once...

Read More

Household Hazardous Waste (HHW) Collections

The Chester County Solid Waste Authority (CCSWA) has announced the Chester County Hazardous Household Waste (HHW) collection dates for 2024:

- Saturday, April 20 in Phoenixville
- Friday, June 21 in Coatesville
- Saturday, August 24 in Oxford
- Saturday, October 5...

Read More

Disposing of Old Televisions & Computers

If you are interested in recycling an old television or computer, you may do so at the Lanchester Landfill, located at 7224 Division Highway (Route 322), Narvon. Please note:

- Limit of one TV per household
- No projection TV's
- You must show ID that you are a resident...

Read More

View PDF